

Grayson Gilmore

Department of Political Science
Zulauf Hall 406
Northern Illinois University
DeKalb, IL 60115

(781)708-2865
ggilmore@niu.edu
<http://graysongilmore.weebly.com/>

Education

Boston College

Ph.D. in Political Science 2015
Dissertation Title: "Hobbes and the Birth of Civil Science"
Committee: Susan Shell (Chair), Robert Faulkner, Nasser Behnegar, Christopher Kelly

Doctoral Comprehensive Exams, Passed with Distinction 2012

Boise State University

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), Philosophy 2007

Academic Positions

Visiting Assistant Professor, Political Science Department 2016-2017
Northern Illinois University

John Marshall Post-Doctoral Fellow, Political Science Department 2015-2016
Boston College
Director of John Marshall Project Undergraduate Fellowship Program
Maintainer of JMP Website

Research and Publications

Article in Progress: "Hobbes's Humanitarian Critique of Socratic Civil Science"

Submitted for review to Review of Politics

Book Manuscript in Progress: "Hobbes and the Birth of Civil Science"

Slated for submission Fall 2016

Article in Progress: "Hobbes on Distributive Justice: Sovereignty versus Private Property"

Slated for submission Spring 2017

Teaching

Political Science Department, Northern Illinois University

Democracy in America Fall 2016

American Political Thought I Fall 2016

Hobbes's Civil Science, Graduate Seminar Fall 2016

Political Science Department, Boston College

Rights in Conflict	Fall 2015
Fundamental Concepts of Politics I	Fall 2015
The Question of Justice	Spring 2015
Guest Lecture for Hobbes's Leviathan , Graduate Seminar.	Fall 2014
The Question of Justice	Spring 2013
Discussion Sections for How to Rule the World . Lectures by Robert Bartlett.	Fall 2012
Apprenticeship in College Teaching Certificate, Center for Teaching Excellence at Boston College	Spring 2015

Academic Service

Editor at Leo Strauss Center Transcripts Project

Full transcript of Seminar in Kant, Spring Quarter 1967. 2012-2013

Honors and Fellowships

John Marshall Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Boston College	2015-2016
Teaching Fellowship, Boston College	2014-2015
Ernest Fortin Memorial Foundation Summer Grant	2014
Bradley Summer Grant	2014
Phi Kappa Phi, Boise State University	2009
Student Marshal, Boise State University	2007

Conferences

Participant: Jack Miller Center Summer Institute 2015

“Science, Enterprise and Law in the Making of the Modern Commercial Republic: Creativity, Innovation and Free Institutions”

Discussant on Panel: “War, Discord, and Fear in Early Modern Political Thought”

Midwest Political Science Association 73rd Annual Meeting April 18, 2015

Paper Presentation: “The Egalitarian Basis of Hobbesian Reciprocity”

Northeastern Political Science Association 46th Annual Meeting November 13, 2014

Languages

Reading Knowledge: German, Latin

Teaching and Research Interests

Major Field: Political Theory

Specialization: Early Modern Political Theory

Key Thinkers of Interest: Hobbes, Bacon

Minor Fields: American Politics, Comparative Politics
Other Interests: History and Philosophy of Science

References

Susan Shell
Chair, Political Science Dept.
140 Commonwealth Avenue
Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts 02467
617-552-4168
susan.shell@bc.edu

Robert Faulkner
Research Professor, Political Science Dept.
140 Commonwealth Avenue
Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts 02467
617-552-4178
robert.faulkner@bc.edu

Nasser Behnegar
Associate Professor, Political Science Dept.
140 Commonwealth Avenue
Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts 02467
617-552-1897
nasser.behnegar@bc.edu

Christopher J. Kelly
Professor, Political Science Dept.
140 Commonwealth Avenue
Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts 02467
617-552-1565
christopher.kelly.3@bc.edu